We are a school that lives in nature and with nature. There is a beehive next to our school. A beehive front is a traditionally painted wooden board that closes a beehive and that beekeepers use to tell beehives apart. The painted beehive front originates from the history of Slovene beekeeping and serves as a theme of our art contest. Beehive motifs are traditionally religious (Adam and Eve, Job, etc.) and profane (a devil sharpens a woman's tongue, a miller and his wife, a woman's mill, etc.).

The story that your print is representing can be either folk or historical, real-life or imagined, a close-up or a view from afar, it can be a cartoon. The only obligatory requirement is that it has to be produced in a print-making technique.
